Pierce County Sheriff's detectives need your help to locate a missing woman, feared to be the victim of foul play. Pamela Kuich has been missing under suspicious circumstances since June of 2005.

The last known sighting of Pamela Kuich occurred on Sunday June 19th, 2005. That day Kuich, her boyfriend and her two-year-old son attended a Father's Day gathering at a relative's home in the Roy area.

At 5:15 p.m. the following day, Pamela Kuich's son was found abandoned outside of Parkland First Baptist Church on Lafayette St. S. in Parkland. Kuich was not found in the area of the church, and there have been no known sightings or contacts with her since then.

At the time of her disappearance Pamela Faye Kuich was a white female, 42 years old, 5'1" tall, 140 lbs., with brown eyes and blonde hair. Prior to her disappearance she had been staying with her boyfriend and son at area motels, shelters, and camping in the woods in the Roy and Spanaway area.

Detectives are looking for any information regarding Pamela Kuich's disappearance and/or her whereabouts.
